ORRHS STUDENTS PRESENT SPRING CONCERT

A well balanced program of instrumental and vocal music was offered to a most appreciative audience Sunday at the Gilbert D. Bristol auditorium at the Old Rochester Regional High School.

The performance opened with a group of songs by the Girls Glee Club under the direction of Mr. Zavan Mazmanian.

Miss Karen Chase was featured soloist during the presentation of "Sanctus and Benedictus" from "St. Cecilia Mass" by Gounod.

A trio composed of the Misses Kathy Gibbs, Beverly Perry and Darby Locke presented "Ye Sons of Israel" by Mendelssohn, with the Glee Club in the background.

The "Lovin Tree", arranged by John Niles, had Miss Corrine Sylvia as the featured vocalist, supported by the Glee Club.

Manuel Barros, on the trumpet, presented pleasant renditions of "Fascination" and "Granada".

To close out the first part of the program, an orchestra composed of students who refer to themselves as the "Leftovers" presented a medley of popular and lively tunes. This group was under the direction of senior, Ray Gaumont.

After intermission, the Junior High Glee Club, with Miss Doreen Sylvia directing, took over, presenting a program of spiritual, calypso and popular tunes.

This was followed by the school band presenting a trio of tunes, comprised of a march, a symphony and a rhumba.

Miss Beverly Perry then presented a vocal solo, accompanied by Mr. Mazmanian - "Mon Coeur a Ta Voix" from "Samson and Delilah".

The concert closed out on a lively note with the band playing theme songs from the TV programs "Bonanza" and "Peter Gunn".

Mrs. Thelma Ostenfeld once again was a pleasure to listen to as she accompanied the Girls' Glee Club on the piano.

The souvenir programs were prepared and printed by the students of the business department under the supervision of Mrs. Vera Jozefek.

HILLTOP FRIENDSHIP CIRCLE

Hilltop Friendship Circle received an invitation for the members to attend a Fiftieth Anniversary observance in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton B. Hatton, formerly of Mattapoisett, now of East Washington, New Hampshire. It was held at their son's home, Albert Hatton, Boutemain Avenue, Plymouth, Saturday, April 3rd, from 2 to 4 P.M. Mrs. Hatton was the first president of Hilltop Friendship Circle, and was organist and soloist at the East Mattapoisett Quaker Meeting-House for several years. Circle members attending were Mrs. Ruth Shaw, president; Mrs. Cynthia Power, treasurer; Mrs. Edna L. Borden, secretary; Mrs. Marjorie H. Wilson, chaplain; Mrs. Leila B. Sherman, Mrs. Addie Stevens, Mrs. Julia Bowman, Mrs. Minnie Tinkham and Earle D. Wilson, pastor.

The last Circle meeting was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Ruth Shaw, who presided at the business meeting. An invitation was received to a luncheon as guests of East Fairhaven Ladies' Benevolent Society on April 28th. Twelve members plan to attend. Plans were made to furnish lunch for those attending Preparative Meeting at East Mattapoisett on April 17th. Mrs. Lillian Johnson reported on cards sent to shut-ins, and it was noted that Mrs. Bessie Martin has been a patient at Mattapoisett Nursing Home, having been ill with pneumonia.

A letter was read from Mrs. John Chappell, a missionary in Taiwan, thanking the Circle for a donation. Mrs. Chappell is the daughter of the late Rev. Oscar Mostrom, who was pastor at the East Mattapoisett Meeting several years ago.

The next Circle meeting will be held in the Sunday-School rooms on April 20th.

ATTENDED GRANGE MEETING

boys should be present on that date with their signed forms and $0.50 registration fee which helps defray the insurance cost. Any parent desirous of helping, in any capacity with Little League programs, should so signify on the forms the youngsters bring home for parental permission to play baseball in the towns' Little League program.

Coaches will be Tony Guilherme, Greens; Lou Pepin and Bud Trow, Blues; and Henry Mogilni, Reds. Steve Almeida and Gary McBride will handle the Pony League entrant in the Greater New Bedford Pony League.

The committee wishes parents would not feel that they are not capable of coaching or assisting in the Mattapoisett baseball program. They do not expect any parent to be a Casey Stengel. Come on Dad, jump in and you will be pleasantly surprised how much fun you will have and maybe take an inch or two off that ever expanding waistline.

The three Mattapoisett teams and the two Marion clubs are sponsored by the respective towns but Rochester is sponsored by George Knight and Donald Look, local contractors. A tip of the hat to George and Donald and to Al Jenney, their coach, for their combined efforts for the boys from Rochester.

Thanks to Bud Trow and Al Jenney for their help in getting out the enrollment forms and schedules.

The Little League will be no better than the effort of the people who volunteer to help with this program. It cannot be successful without the help of many people willing to give a part of themselves to this worthwhile project.

SCHOLARSHIP DANCE PLANNED

The committee for the annual Scholarship ball for the "Dollars for Scholars" campaign will meet on April 15th to plan for this year's dance which will be held on May 8th. The highly successful dance held last year was well supported in the three towns and promises another enjoyable evening this year. The dance was held in February last year with a George Washington theme and cherry tree motif. This affair gave a healthy boost to the scholarship fund.

The dance committee will be headed by Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Pelson and they hope to en-

MEXICAN PROGRAM AT CUB SCOUT MEETING

Father and son ingenuity and a little traditional fun from Mexico were demonstrated in a program presented by Cub Scouts of Pack 30 at a meeting at Rochester Grange Hall.

A demonstration of the correct folding of the Flag was included in an opening ceremony by Cubs in Mrs. Chester Smigel's den 3, who also led in the Flag salute.

In conjunction with this month's theme "Cub Scout Genius" Raymond Desrosiers and his Cub Scout son, Bruce, demonstrated ingenious teamwork in constructing a small sailboat from miscellaneous items including a coat hanger, tin can, string, cork stoppers and a handkerchief.

Last month's postponed theme "South of the Border" provided the dens with a sample of a little fun enjoyed by Mexican children as all the Cub Scouts participated in swinging plastic bats at a Mexican Piata in an effort to break a suspended paper constructed donkey filled with

MATTAPOISETT GRANDMOTHER WINS $322. ON THE "CHANNEL 6 SWEEPSTAKES"

Mrs. Blanche Bussiere, a Gold Star mother and widow, is $322.00 richer today because she's a fan of "The Rifleman" on Channel 6. Mrs. Bussiere, who lives with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Winslow Allen of 10 Linhares Avenue, Mattapoisett, had just made herself a cup of tea and had settled down to watch WTEV's "Rifleman" program. The "Channel 6 Sweepstakes" -- which is flashed scores of times throughout the station's broadcast day -- had just appeared. "$322.00 and 36 degrees; they'll never call us," said Mrs. Bussiere. According to her account, she had just finished saying those famous last words when the phone rang. It was the Channel 6 operator calling, Mrs. Bussiere did know the answers, with an assist from granddaughter, Winnie, and she did win the "Channel 6 Sweepstakes".

At last report, Mrs. Bussiere had no specific plans for her winnings, but she did say that all the group on Linhares Avenue would share in her good fortune, and Winnie has spoken of buying a horse.

CONGRESSMAN KEITH PROPOSES REPEAL OF EXCISE TAXES

Legislation that would remove Federal excise taxes on a wide range of so-called "luxury" goods was filed in the House today by Congressman Hastings Keith (R-Mass.).

Under terms of the Keith bill, repeal would be effective after June 30, 1965, for excise taxes at the retail level on jewelry and related items, furs, cosmetics, luggage and handbags.

Manufacturer's excise taxes that would be removed include those on refrigeration equipment, electric, gas and oil appliances, radio and television sets, phonographs and records, musical instruments, certain sporting equipment, and business machines. Taxes on admissions, club dues, communications and transportation of persons would also be removed.

"Twenty-five years ago, when most of these taxes were imposed," Keith said, "I imagine that some of the goods and services were considered luxuries. Now, however, who would call a telephone call a luxury? It is a necessary part of business and everyday life and should be treated as such."

The veteran Congressman said that a complete review of our excise tax system is overdue and he hopes that his bill will help provide the impetus for such a study.

"There are certain Federal excise taxes which I would retain," he added. "These are taxes which provide revenues for the ultimate benefit of the taxpayer - or 'user's taxes'." Keith explained that most excise taxes now in effect, however, do not fall into the "user's" tax category, but merely provide general revenues. When first enacted, during World War II, such taxes were intended to discourage the purchase of taxed items as much as they were meant to raise revenues.

"It is my hope that we can get the Administration to begin action on its three-month-old promise to repeal these taxes."
